50X1-HUM

1. Prior to 26 June 1951, the Hindenburg Kaserne in Naumburg (M 52/J 89) quartered only a guard detail. After 26 June, one barracks building was occupied to capacity by recruits who wore red-bordered black epaulets and by NCOs with motor insignia. The high-echelon headquarters, which had been stationed there, seemed to have left.

2. On 22 June, the Bismarck Kaserne appeared to be occupied by only a guard detail. Trucks [redacted] apparently driving-school vehicles, were identified in the barracks yard.

50X1-HUM

3. On 22 June, the Barbara Kaserne was completely vacant. No guard detail or sentry were seen there. The four adjacent civilian houses belonging to the billeting area, which had been requisitioned for Soviet families, were also vacant.
